Come and Meet the New Harbormaster, Dennis Durgan

The Newport Beach Harbormaster is a division of the City's Public Works department. The Harbormaster's office is responsible for management of 1,200+ moorings in the harbor, as well as the rental slips and moorings at Marina Park. He and his staff are ambassadors on the water, teaching good boating and enforcing the City's ordinances, and they coordinate with the County's Harbor Patrol on law enforcement issues.

Mr. Durgan was appointed as Newport Beach Harbormaster earlier this summer. Raised in Newport Beach, Mr. Durgan has been sailing for most of his life, and has raced and cruised extensively around the world. He has participated in 16 Transpac races as well as in the America's Cup. He is a licensed residential real estate agent.

Come meet your Harbormaster, Dennis Durgan, and ask questions!
