Participate with a Purpose!

Many Newport Beach citizens volunteer their time to assist and advise the City Council. Participation on City Boards, Commissions and Committees is one of the principal ways citizens get involved in their local government. Women in Newport Networking (WINN) is a local forum available to residents creating awareness about opportunities to serve as members of these and other community organizations. Hear from current and past members about the essential steps to getting appointed to the Board of Library Trustees, City Arts Commission, Harbor Commission, Park, Beaches & Recreation Commission, Planning Commission as well as many others.
