

WHERE IS ALL THE NEW HOUSING GOING TO GO IN NEWPORT BEACH – PART 2

THE STATE HAS MANDATED THAT NEWPORT BEACH ZONE FOR 4845 HOUSING UNITS. WHERE ARE THEY ALL GOING TO GO?

Come hear as Seimone Jurjis, City of Newport Beach Assistant Manager, presents Part 2 of the update on the status of the City's implementation of the Housing Element and where applications for housing have been submitted including those that have been approved.

This is a continuation of the September program with a review of last month's presentation along with new information.

This is a critical issue in Newport Beach, and it is important that Newport Beach residents understand it. Speak Up Newport typically does not cover the same subject in two consecutive months but due to community interest in this subject has decided to do so.
