Update, Status and Next Steps on Corona del Mar High School Athletic Complex

Come and hear the status of this proposal to the community.

The Newport Mesa Unified School District is currently proposing modifications to the Corona del Mar High School Athletic Complex, generating a great deal of community interest. The District has prepared an EIR which is going through the review process. The proposal is of interest to all parents and students attending or about to attend the school.

Karen Yelsey, Newport-Mesa Unified School District Board Member and District staff will present the current status. Phil Milner, a director of Newport Citizens for Responsible Growth, and Annie Lindt, Co-Chairman of that organization, will speak from the resident's point of view.
